

JOB DESCRIPTION

INFANT/TODDLER TEACHER

EARLY EXPLORERS CHILD DEVELOPMENT ACADEMY (EECDA)

The leadership of Family and Workforce Centers of America (FWCA) has a history of serving the St. Louis community for over 40 years. FWCA has an immediate opening for Infant/Toddler Teacher for the Early Explorers Child Development Academy.

The Infant/Toddler Teacher will plan and implement learning opportunities that further the children's social, emotional, cognitive, physical growth and development while acting as the primary resource for parents.

Job Responsibilities: Develop and implement developmentally appropriate activities on a daily basis; conduct daily health checks and ensure environment is clean, safe and free of hazards; be responsible for developing and implementing individualized activities based on the development level of each child; create a learning environment in the classroom and outside for young children which promote experimentation and exploration; Communicate effectively with parents in promoting parental involvement in their child's early learning experience; facilitate and assist children in developing positive relationships that support a caring community within the classroom.

Job Requirements: Working knowledge and understanding of early childhood development and education; ability to communicate effectively with parents and including them in their child's learning process; one year teaching experience working with infants and toddlers; pass a criminal and child abuse and neglect background check and drug screening; ability to provide a recent physical & TB test.

Education Requirements: Graduation from a general or technical high school. CDA Licensure required. Associate Degree in Early Childhood Development or related required. Classroom experience required.